

Hi gorgeous,

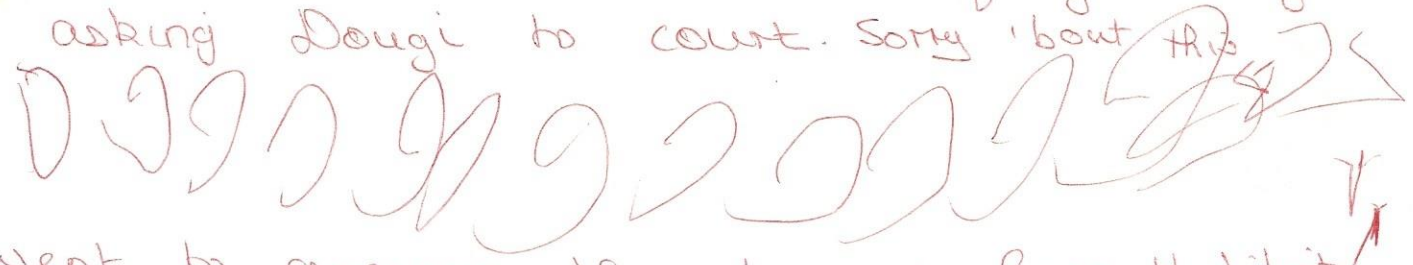

Well, I have to write in red 'cos I lost the blue pen!! Anyhow what a drag hey love? January 31st. Fuck, I asked if you'd be getting out on the 18th & # Lyuberman said "no" you'd go to Parthenais till the verdict. I'll be there for sure on Jan. 31st. Fuck I hope you get out son of a bitch, I'm really depressed 'cos I figured it would be all over with & I could dream of you coming home, now I can't. Oh well 2 more months & at least in Jan.

I can't see you.

So not much is happening, I have Emmett over for the weekends, I took him to see Santa Claus yesterday when I did the groceries. Anyhow last week the car broke down on the Decarie expressway, going to work, I couldn't leave it there so I got it towed to a garage. The reason it broke was 'cos there was a leak in the rad. in the transmission connection. So when I put anti freeze I lost it. So 'cos I couldn't afford it, I just ^{put} water & when the cold spell came everything froze. Dumb me I get it going & figure it'll defrost on the way to work, but it doesn't. The ice was all in the hoses etc etc & it prevented the water from getting to the engine so I ^{at} over at heated & conked out. This guy stopped & I go home 'cos there's not enough work & he doesn't like to pay people to do nothing. GREAT. I was really mad. He said come

I boosted my car ⁽³⁾ & its going perfectly now.
Debbie got busted passing a charge on wed.
She's out on bail now. I don't see too much of her now as I found she's a real selfish person & I told her so.

About the nasty letter I sent you, I'm not sorry I sent it but I forgave you for asking Dougi to court. Sorry 'bout this

I went to answer the phone & Emmett did it.
Anyhow it pissed me off 'cos I've done everything, I could get you & him fuck all & you know he's my enemy & you still asked him. Also what pissed me off was how sneakily you did it. Not even asking me. Anyhow I forgave you but it better never happen again.

Well nothing else is happening I love you very much & I was really happy to see you in court, I still have all my feelings of love for you so don't worry o.k honey. I wish you'd cut your hair. I gained weight hey?
I like it this way so don't try to tell me to lose it o.k love? I know I didn't look good but I was working. So take care love & the case looks good, I'm pretty sure you'll be out soon so don't worry & please give me any more news on the visits o.k love? I love you. X your wife X X X X X
