

Hi love

Well I got your really beautiful letter, I'm glad that your getting your head back together again as I really hated getting weird letters from you & sometimes they would make me think back to when we were together & your friends always came first & when you stuck up for Dougi before it hurt 'cos it reminded me of before when you'd always let him in the house even if I did not want. Anyhow thats over & I'm sorry you worried but please don't I was sad, muddled up & did not know if I wanted to stay with you 'cos of your letters but you are back to normal now so I am happy again. If by some chance something does happen to me it would only be Dougi but I don't think he'll get ~~it~~ ^{my address} so I'm not worried.

Honey I told you a hundred times I don't go downtown anymore. I won't let the people bore me & they have no mentality at all, try just drinking, wasting time & money & going nowhere & always gossiping. I have no time for that. Yes I'm home a real lot, I love the house its gorgeous & I hope you're not mad, but its my decision.

Debbie & Gaetano moved in the back in a semi-basement duplex. They're down 0.12 of my questions. The mistake was in $25. for lunches drinks etc etc. It was $5. I don't know how come I put $25. I would never waste that on pepsi's. My name is hot brother (HAHA)

I will try soon to find a photo o'r. love its hard 'cos I never go anywhere but I will try to find a polaroid or something I get some photo's o'r. I won't promise but I will try hard & if worse comes to worse I will send a crummy 25¢ one!!

The radiator is leaking again on the car.
I don't understand it I lost all my $10 of antifreeze this week. Something is wrong with the pressure system in the rad. There is too much. I'm fed up with the shit box I know its gonna break soon & then I'm in trouble.
Fuck I work in T.M.R. I live here & start at 8am. I'll have to get up at 4am soon!!

Oh well life has its ups & downs I guess but why always my car? So take care love, I love you remember that.

Write soon. all my love. P.S I don't know the area code.

Love Love Love your wife Love Love
