

the loves.

Well the weekend is nearly over. I didn't get a letter on Friday from you but I found out that you wrote to your father. I don't know why but I guess it'll be the same you'll go back to your family no matter what you say. I guess its normal it just hurt me 'cos you could've written to me instead.

Anyhow I got payed Friday, put $50 in the bank for my rent, did the groceries & filled up the car. I went over to visit Joni & Cu-Cut for awhile Friday night then Saturday me & Joni went to a second hand furniture store & I bought a 220 stove for $100.00, I had $70.00 & they took credit for $30 & I sold the gas stove for $30 so on Thursday I will get the money I put it for the other stove.

Today was Paul's birthday so I'd bought him a pair of pants, a coloring book &

Trayons, Dani had a little party for him so I went up for 2 hours with Debis. Darlene gave him a sweater & he also got a bubble gum machine, a doll called 'The Tony', another colouring book & a camera. He was happy.

Oh yes I'm moving Saturday 30th for sure so make sure after next weekend you write to my new address but it doesn't matter 'cos I'll be filling a card to have my mail transferred.

Everything is pretty quiet around here, I ran into Dougi at Cu-Cuts & I did what you said, I was friendly & I also gave him your message but I don't think he trusts me now 'cos he just said "yeah". Oh well.

I really miss you now. its terrible I just wish you would write more I don't understand why you don't but I said I would never nag you again so I won't. Anyhow' darling there is no more news, I love you very ...very much & won't stop writing. So take care of yourself & think nice things about me O.K? I'll write again tomorrow for sure & please please write soon.

all my love
